

CHORUS GIRLS IN "MADAME SHERRY," AT THE COLONIAL THEATRE TUESDAY NIGHT, DECEMBER 10.

Amusements

A Packed House Will Greet "Madame Sherry."

Every day is bringing "Madame Sherry" nearer to its local engagement. It is hitting the high spots on its second trans-continental trip, again leaving in its wake millions of laughing delighted people and facing as many more expectant audiences as it did last season.

Never before have laughter, music, novelty and beauty of production been so thoroughly and artistically combined as in the case of "Madame Sherry," and all who view the performance admit there's a reason for its wonderful success, as to which the patrons of the theatre here will have an opportunity to say when "Madame Sherry" is presented at the Colonial Theatre next Tuesday night, December 10. Seats are selling fast.

"The Punkin' Husker."

"The Punkin' Husker," a rural comedy-drama in four acts, will be the attraction at the Colonial next Thursday night, December 12. A band is carried and will parade at noon. A number of specialties will be introduced between acts. The prices will be 25, 35 and 50 cents.

LAMBERT A. AND M. CAPTAIN

San Antonio Boy Chosen to Lead Team—Eighteen Players Are Awarded Their Letters.

Homer G. Lambert of San Antonio, who has been one of the mainstays in the Farmers' line for the past three years, was selected to pilot the Farmers on the gridiron during 1913. Lambert is a junior this year and is taking the agricultural course, and due to graduate with the class of 1913. It would have been hard to have selected a better man to lead the fight of the gridiron warriors. He is 20 years old and weighs 210 pounds, and does the 100 yards in 11 seconds. Three years ago he entered A. and M. College as a freshman, coming from the Peacock Military Academy, where he made a record on the football field, and that year he made his letter at guard as well as the next, but this year he was shifted to tackle, which position he so admirably filled. He was unanimously chosen for an All-State tackle this year, and it is predicted for him an even more successful year in 1913. He is a man that will lead the team through its hardest struggles on the field as well as off.

Eighteen letters were awarded to the Texas A. and M. College football squad by the Athletic Council this week. This is the largest number of letters ever awarded in the history of the college, but taking into consideration that the Farmers have had the best team in the history of the institution, and as Moran had two good men for every backfield position and both ends, it was as small a number as could possibly be given. At tackles, guards and center only one extra letter was awarded, and that going to Crow, who made the All-State team. Crow has divided time with Bowler, and Bowler going to guard when Miller was injured.

The following men received letters and gold football watch fobs with the letter "T" on one side and "Champions of the Southwest, 1912," on the other side: Bell, Kern, Bateman, Beasley, McArthur, Spake, Higginbotham, Vesmirovsky, Montgomery, Everett, Washington, Morrison, Bowler, Lambert, Miller, Lyles, Crow and Cushman. A letter was awarded to Student Manager C. A. Roberts.

The following men received a gold football watch fob with the letters "T. A. M. C." on it: Nelms and Kendrick.

The following received silver football watch fobs with the letters "T. A. M. C." on them: Herring and Parker. These men did not play quite enough to receive a letter, but were awarded the football watch fobs for their excellent work while in the game.

The Farmers will lose only four men from their excellent squad by graduation. They are Bell, Lyles, Bowler and Vesmirovsky. Of course this will be a great loss, but from the large squad of youngsters and fourteen "T" men returning next year the Farmers will maintain their reputation of the past on the football field. It is quite likely that Bell, this year's captain and star halfback, will return next year and take post-graduate work in civil engineering.

The Danger of Lying in Bed.

Lack of muscular exercise is the first result of lying in bed. As a result the appetite is weakened, the digestive action slows down and the muscles of the stomach and abdomen cease to act upon the intestinal mass. When the body is in a recumbent position the heart works with the least expenditure of effort and the least fatigue and the circulation and the functional activity are decreased. But unless the subject is exceptionally vigorous all the benefits are counterbalanced by dangers. In bed the subject is shut away from fresh air and sunlight. The result of that deprivation is a condition similar to anemia. But the supreme menace to the weak or the aged confined to bed is the clogging of the pulmonary circulation, an action which frequently results in passive congestion of both sides of the lungs. For this reason the simple fracture of a bone may be the cause of death, because when the patient lies in bed there is no movement of the muscles to act as an incentive to deep breathing.—Harper's.

The Aristocratic Montenegrin.

The Bulgarian may not have a liking for domestic service, but he is a born agricultural laborer. According to a recent traveler, if you give him a barren piece of land he will make it blossom like the rose, while his Montenegrin brother will stand and look on. On the other hand, the Montenegrin placed in a drawing room always behaves like a gentleman, while the Bulgarian in the same environment cannot help being a boor. "But then," says the London Chronicle, "it is said the Montenegrins are the descendants of Serbian aristocrats who fled to the mountains to seek freedom. The explanation is thin, but pleasing. Of one claim to culture, however, Montenegrins cannot be deprived—they established a printing press at Obod only twenty years after Caxton began his labors, and she printed beautifully. But the Turks made 'pl' of everything, and the press was not re-established till 1832."

The Drunkard's Cloak.

One of the quaint instruments of torture in England in olden time was a device known as the drunkard's cloak. It was made of wood and in shape resembled a huge inverted flowerpot. Through the small circular aperture in the top was thrust the neck of the imprisoned inebriate. The weight of this ancient counterpart of the straitjacket fell on the victim's shoulders and was sufficient to make every bone in his body ache. With his hands practically pinned to his sides and the garment reaching almost to the ground the only motion allowed him was a slow shuffle of his weary feet as he dragged his way painfully along. One can well believe that any one who had been compelled to don the drunkard's cloak would be very apt to come to the conclusion that a high old time was not worth having at the price.

True politeness is perfect ease and freedom. It simply consists in treating others just as you love to be treated yourself.

A SURPRISE PARTY

Neighbors and Friends Gathered at Home of Mr. and Mrs. DeBenon on Rock Prairie.

Rock Prairie, Texas, Dec. 2, 1912. To the Editor of The Bryan Eagle:

As I seldom see anything in your paper from our part of the county, I want to let you know what a fine time we had on Thanksgiving night. A friend and neighbor, Mr. Charles DeBenon is on the eve of removing to Navarro county, so we all decided to give him a surprise party before he left, and you can bet it was a surprise too. But we were welcome, for that old man and his wife, together with his big bunch of boys and girls, know how to make a man feel glad he went to see them. Nearly every family in Rock Prairie was represented.

We began to get together about 8 o'clock and they kept coming, too, until there were just thirty-five of us in that room, and every one of us talking at once! Well, we were not there long until we began to see Mr. DeBenon's boys and girls gather around the piano, and with the piano, violin, guitars and bass violin we were entertained for two hours, when we stopped long enough to gather around the table loaded with cake, candy, apples, oranges, pop-corn and nuts. You see the party was a pound party as well as a surprise party. Everybody brought something nice, and did we enjoy ourselves? Well, I should think we did. Wish you had been there. As soon as we made that table look like a hurricane had struck it we went right back and had some more of that good music, and the first thing we knew it was 11:30 by the clock and we had to go home. It will be a long time before some of us on Rock Prairie will forget the 28th of November, 1912.

We regret to see these folks leave our community, for they are good neighbors and know how to give a royal welcome when you go to see them. Our loss, however, is Navarro county's gain, and we wish them God-speed and good luck.

Those present were Mr. A. B. Gandy, "Aunt Mag" Gandy, Miss Besie Gandy, Miss Allie Gandy, Miss Grace Gandy, Mr. Howell Gandy, Mr. Henry Gandy, Mr. Lon V. Williams, Mrs. Mae Williams, Mrs. Sam Williams, Master Amy Williams, Mr. Luther Arnold, Mrs. Martha Arnold and baby, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Arnold, Miss Logan, Mr. Beaty Barron, Mrs. Verna Barron, Miss Gladys Barron, Miss Icy Barron, Master Lahla Barron, Mr. Truman Carroll, Mr. Lannis Carroll, Miss Stella Carroll, Miss Clennie Carroll, Mrs. Martha Holland, Mr. Rob Holland, Mr. Enoch Holland, Mrs. Mattie Holland, Mrs. Emma Battle, Miss Naomi Royder, Mr. Paul McSwayne, Mr. Walter Perkins.

Even Heat Night and Day Means Health

Cole's Original Air Tight Wood Heater will give you the home comfort for the money you spend for fuel than you have ever had before.

The floor can be heated perfectly—equal to the work done by high priced base flued heaters. This remarkable quick-heating stove wonder can be regulated to keep fire and heat over night, using wood for fuel.

You do not have to get up in the cold to kindle a new fire every morning as with other stoves.

The two basic principles which make a successful, economical wood heater—one that will stand abuse and give lasting satisfaction, are—

First—An absolutely air-tight construction, giving a perfect control over the fire.

Second—A large, sensitive radiating surface, which responds quickly to the fire and radiates all the heat from a slow, perfectly controlled, economical combustion of the fuel.

These basic principles are embodied in Cole's Original Air Tight Wood Heater and make it the most economical heater ever produced—for wood, cobs and trash.

Made in all sizes—seven styles—Price $3.00 and up.

We Recommend Them as the Best and Most Economical Heater Made.
